STATEMENT

I am applying for membership in the WILDLIFE COMMITTEE OF WASHINGTON, INC., a non-profit organization dedicated to the preservation of our wildlife and environment, to the education of the public and our youth in hunting, firearm and archery safety, to the promotion of general firearm and archery marksmanship, including the various competitive shooting sports. I will support those aims.

I understand the administration and all activities of the Wildlife Committee of Washington, Inc. are conducted through the unpaid services of its members and I agree to donate my time and expertise as needed. I warrant that I am of good character and have a legal right to own and use firearms in the United States and the State of Washington.

I understand that if the Initiation process is not completed within three (3) months it could result in the forfeiture of all fees paid with this application. The Initiation process includes attending an Orientation session and being voted into membership by the Board of Directors. No membership benefits are granted until the Initiation process has been completed.
